

K-Love station in my town on 106.3 has been great for me and other church members who prefer not to listen to secular music. When you go into local business around town they have K-Love playing. It is very positive and uplifting. Our town really needs this station, there are a lot of youth here who listen to it faithfully. K-love is more positive for people than some other types of music.